

Our visit to the church

On Wednesday 4 March 2009 class 8 went to the Evangelical church on Aspley Lane, Nottingham. The reason why we went is to learn about Jesus and The Bible.

Firstly, we walked down Ambleside road.

When we got there I said to myself this don't look like a church it looks like a library. Ken, who I recognised from our school, welcomed us in then he showed us some bibles. The weirdest one was where you start from the back and read to the front.

Then, Ken showed us some speakers. They were pretending to be people from the Bible. I enjoyed listening to the Roman soldier. I thought that his costume was wicked (particularly the sword!)

After that we watched a video about Jesus. It was great. Then we tried some food but I didn't.

Next we had a biscuit and juice.

After that a lady said we were having a task. I said to myself, a task! We're not at school, we're at church but it was about Jesus.

Sadly it was time to go and that meant walking back up Ambleside road.

It was an enjoyable visit. I certainly learnt a lot about The Bible.
